Visual arts events: Spring 'Gallery Stroll,' lectures and calls for entries

Bouquets of yellow balloons will mark the entrances to a number of Salt Lake City's art galleries Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. as they join together to present a spring "Gallery Stroll." The public is invited to attend this free event, coordinated by the Salt Lake Art Dealers Association.

Several galleries will open new exhibitions, while others will offer special entertainment and refreshments along with their continuing shows. Most of the 19 member galleries are located downtown within walking distance of one another — maps showing each of the members' locations will be available at most stops on the tour.

Participating members of the Salt Lak Art Dealers Association include: Brushworks Gallery, Dolores Chase Fine Art, Courtyard Gallery, Gallery 58, Marble House Gallery, Phillips Gallery, Pierpont Gallery, Southam Gallery, Utah Designer Craftsmen, F. Weisler Gallery, Gayle Weyher Gallery, Finch Lane Gallery, Art Masters Galleries, Blue Mouse Theater Gallery, Repartee Gallery, and Williams Fine Arts.

• The Visiting Artist Series concludes Monday at Utah State University with a visit by photographer John Pfahl, who will present a free slide lecture at 8 p.m. in Fine Arts Visual 150 on the Logan campus.

Pfahl has been a professor of photography at the School of Photographic Arts and Sciences at Rochester Institute of Technology and a visiting professor at the University of New Mexico. His work has been featured in numerous solo exhibitions, including the George Eastman House in Rochester, the George Pompidou Center in Paris, and the Barbizan Art Gallery in London. He received a National Endowment for the Arts Photographers Fellowship, as well as printmaking and photography grants from CAPS (New York State).

The Visiting Artist Series is sponsored by USU's Department of Art and supported by the Marie Eccles Caine Foundation, the Utah Arts Council and NEA.

• All high school juniors and seniors are invited to submit art work to the Salt Lake Community College Annual High School Art Show. Eight cash prizes of $100, $50 and $25 will be awarded.

Art is to be submitted Monday. The public is invited to view the show Wednesday through May 17 from 2 to 9 p.m. in the College Center, 4600 S. Redwood Road.

• The Graphic Design Department of Salt Lake Community College will present its annual Art Show of student work May 19-26 at the College Center, 4600 S. Redwood Road.

An open house will be held May 19 from 7 to 9 p.m. The remaining hours which the show can be viewed will be: May 20 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.; May 22-26 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., with additional hours May 23 and 25 from 7 to 9 p.m.

• The Intermountain Society of Artists education meeting will be held Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Senior Citizens' Center, 237 S. 10th East.

Artists Dave Wade and Ken Baxter will offer a demonstration in oils. Both will paint the same subject with different approaches and techniques.

• Ching Hai Oriental Painting Society's third annual open juried exhibit, "Colors & Cuttings," will be presented at the Tivoli Gallery, 255 S. State, June 12 through July 15.

Entries for water media on paper and paper cuttings are due June 10 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Tivoli Gallery. For more information, contact Mary Lou Romney, 3485 Santa Rosa Dr., Salt Lake City, Utah 84109.

• Lori Adamski-Peek, whose photos have appeared in Time, Newsweek and Sports Illustrated, will teach a half-day course titled "Great Action Photography" June 15 from 8:30 a.m. to noon at the Austin Quadrangle, located south of Austin Hall on the University of Utah campus.

Tuition for the non-credit course (numbered UIR-1) is $35.

Students who sign up for the course will have an opportunity to focus their own cameras on some live action at the U. — cheerleaders participating in the National Cheerleading Camp. The cheerleaders will be the subject of a practice session following instruction and advice from Adamski-Peek.

Adamski-Peek covered the 1988 Winter and Summer Olympics for Newsweek and is the official photographer for the U.S. Ski Team. She also covers the Kentucky Derby each spring for various equestrian publications and cycling competitions for several cycling magazines.
