Barbershop concert to help youth

The Orem Kiwanis Club assisted by the Orem High Key Club are sponsoring a benefit to raise funds for the Orem club's boys and girls programs Oct. 23 at Orem High School Auditorium at 7 p.m.

These funds assist in helping Orem students participate in Boys and Girls State, the annual statewide cross country invitational races, the Hope of America award program in all Orem elementary schools, the Lincoln essay contests in Orem Junior High schools, the safety city program for pre-school and elementary school children at the Univeristy Mall, Orem City's youth recreation programs and many other worthwhile programs for Orem youth and community.

Orem High A Cappella Choir under the direction of William Denkers will begin the evening entertainment and they will introduce "Bountiful" an award winning barbershop chorus with a show of sequined costumes, creative choreography and barbershop harmony.

This chorus numbers over 90 women from all areas of the Wasatch Front from Springville to Ogden. It has won the regional chorus championship 12 times and has placed high in international competition. These talented women have performed in many cities throughout the U.S. and in England's Royal Albert Hall in London.

Entertaining throughout the state at church and civic functions, they have been a part of the Utah Arts Council's consortium tours and the Utah Arts Festival, twice winners of Johnny Manns' Great American Choral Festival. They recently performed four nights at BYU Education Week where they received standing ovations.

Directed by Tori Postma "Bountiful" offers 4-part barbershp harmony with familiar songs from years past, from Broadway's favorites to today's best choreographed by Sheri Cole.

"Bountiful" will bring with them a championship quartet, "Rainbow Collection."

Tickets are available from Orem Kiwanis or the Orem High Key Club members, or by writing to: Kiwanis 280 W. 1700 S., Orem, UT 84058.

The Orem High Key Club and the Orem Kiwanis Club are affiliated with Kiwanis International, and are service clubs to the schools and community of Orem.

French theater company brings Sartre's 'No Exit'

The Paris theatre troup Compagnie Claude Beaulair will present Jean-Paul Sartre's play, Huis Clos" ("No Exit"), Tuesday, Oct. 13 at the University of Utah.

The performance, which will be in French with English supertitles, will be presented at 8 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium. Sponsors are the departments of English, language and theatre in conjunction with the Alliance Francaise of Utah. Tickets are available at the door.

"Huis Clos," first performed in Paris in 1944, is among Sartre's most famous philosophical plays. It explores the themes of pacifism, and responsibility for one's ideas and responsibility toward others. The play reflects what has been called the Sartrian Hell," in which one witnesses a distortion of the relationship between time and space, as well as a distortion in human relationships.
