George Dibble's Art Scene

The Utah Watercolor Society on exhibit

Watercolor by Dottie Mills entitled "Grapefruit Five"

MHSU meeting Wednesday

The Military History Society of Utah will conduct its first general meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the First Congregational Church, 100 E. 1st St. The meeting will feature a presentation by Dr. Robert H. Anderson, president of the society, on the military history of Utah and the role of the military in the state's development.

Video/lecture series continues in Bountiful

The Bountiful Utah Art Center continues its video/lecture series on Tuesday at 4 p.m. at the center, 2175 S. Main. The series features a presentation by Dr. Robert H. Anderson on the military history of Utah.

George Dibble

George Dibble's art scene is a vibrant one, with many artists exhibiting their work at the Utah Watercolor Society. Dibble's own work is a testament to the skill and creativity of the society's members.

The Utah Watercolor Society is a group of artists who meet regularly to discuss and practice their craft. The society's exhibitions provide a platform for artists to showcase their work and receive feedback from their peers.
