

The Salt Lake Tribune THE ARTS Sunday, September 15, 1991

Art notes: Homeless depicted in photos

Traditional Portraits of Salt Lake City's Homeless... Homeless people are depicted in photos...

Art scene: Exposing young people to rainbow of visual art

Exposing is not a favored subject... Art scene: Exposing young people to rainbow of visual art...

George Dibble... Dibble is a painter and professor emerita of art at the University of Utah...

Lucille Cannon's 'Rain After the Storm'... Dibble's 'Spirit of the West'...

Rare, restored 'Tabu' still packs visual punch after 60 years

Rare, restored 'Tabu' still packs visual punch after 60 years... The film is a masterpiece of art and adventure...

Museum's sale concludes today

Museum's sale concludes today... The Utah Museum of Fine Arts Treasures and Trifles sale concludes today...

Recent Public/Private... Museum's sale concludes today... A two-person exhibit titled 'A Miscellany'...

IT'S SLOW TIME 1991 HOME SHOW The Deseret News is pleased to announce it's 12th Annual Fall Home Improvement & Modern Living Show, October 11-13, at the Salt Palace Center.

CARPET... PICK YOUR CAR, PLACE YOUR AD... 143 South Main