Priscilla Presley To Join Cast Of 'Melrose Place'?

NEW YORK DAILY NEWS

Priscilla Presley is going prime time.

The ex-wife of Elvis Presley and Michael Jackson's former mother-in-law has been cast in Fox' steamy "Melrose Place" prime-time soaper.

A network spokesman couldn't confirm the casting.

However, a knowledgeable source said Lisa Marie Presley's mother will soon go before the "Melrose" cameras. Her appearance is expected to air during the May sweeps, a quarterly ratings period used by stations to set future advertising rates.

Presley is no stranger to the hourlong prime-time soap format. She spent five seasons on the mother of all such serials, CBS' "Dallas."

"Melrose" has a history of bringing in guest stars to spice up the already sizzling soap. Loni Anderson will soon be seen as the mother of Heather Locklear's Amanda.
