War posters to be displayed

An exhibit of World War II posters will go on display at the Peteetneet Cultural Arts Center, 600 E. Peteetneet St., Payson, on Saturday.

The exhibit, titled Produce for Victory: Posters on the American Home Front, 1941-45, has been provided through the collections of the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service, the National Museum of American History and the Utah Humanities Council.

The exhibit will open on Saturday at 6 p.m. in the art gallery. To help kick off the event, the Stage Door Canteen will be offered beginning at 7 p.m. on Saturday in the cultural center at Peteetneet.

During World War II, the canteen was a place where soldiers could go to dance, be served refreshments, be entertained and just relax.

The public may attend and admission is one cent. There will be a musical program with songs from the time period as well as a dance demonstration.

The traveling exhibition features the vibrant posters which helped mobilize American to "produce for victory" during World War II. The 25 posters represented in Produce for Victory were among the hundreds which proliferated in American factories, lunchrooms, offices and grocery store windows during the 1940s.

The exhibit is accompanied by pictures and personal items from many people in the Payson area, giving one a glimpse of what life was like during the war. The display will include photos by Claudius Stevenson and a quilt made by Lorna Jasperson.

CBS' Nielsen ratings drop like a rock

By ED BARK
Dallas Morning News

Who shot CBS? The network has gone from No. 1 with a bullet to No. 3 with a thud.

Nielsen ratings for Week 1 (Sept. 19-25) of the regular season showed CBS sagging to an 11.6 rating, down 1.9 points from its strong opening last year.

ABC, with a 12.6 rating, won premiere week outright for the first time since September 1979. A possibly resurgent NBC finished a close second at 12.3. Fox had a 7.5 rating overall but edged CBS among 18-to 49-year-olds, Madison Avenue's darling "demographic" group. Each rating point equals 954,000 TV households.

ABC and Fox each improved their ratings by a statistically insignificant three-tenths of a point over last season's kickoff week. But NBC improved by 1.1 points, largely because of the strength of its Sunday and Monday movies and a continued strong presence on Thursday nights.

CBS, trying to win its fourth consecutive regular-season ratings race, instead finds itself in immediate danger of falling two rungs to third. It could get worse: CBS has yet to face the loss of eight of its stations to Fox later this season.

Led by Home Improvement, ABC had six of the week's top 10 programs. NBC scored with No. 2 Seinfeld and a special Monday preview of the new series ER, which placed seventh. CBS' 60 Minutes and Murder, She Wrote, prime-time's two longest-running series, placed eighth and 10th, respectively.

Absent Frasier and Wings, NBC's revamped Thursday-night lineup of Mad About You, Friends, Seinfeld, Madman of the People and ER was an overpowering No. 1 in the 30-week season's first test of strengths. ABC remained dominant on Tuesday and strong on Wednesday and Friday. CBS prevailed on Saturday and Sunday, but not by impressive margins.

Although finishing first, ABC has the most series in serious trouble. Three new entries (Blue Skies, My So-Called Life, McKenna) and one returnee (Thunder Alley) finished fourth in their time periods. And although aimed at younger viewers, the acclaimed So-Called Life was ABC's lowest-rated series among 18-to-49-year-olds.

Two of Fox's Sunday night newcomers, Fortune Hunter and the moronic Wild Cats, also are in serious trouble. Look for a quick hook for Fortune Hunter, which follows NFL football at 7 p.m. ET. At No. 92, it was the week's lowest-rated series.

The new CBS drama Under Suspicion is looking like a turnoff on Friday nights opposite ABC's kid-coms and Fox's second-year sensation, The X-Files. Fox's new Party of Five is losing a substantial portion of its lead-in audience from Melrose Place.

Bill Cosby proved to be an effective leadoff hitter on Wednesdays for NBC, although the premiere of The Cosby Mysteries prevailed over Fox's competing Beverly Hills 90210 by less than a rating point.

Cos was older than the Hills, however, among 18- to 49-year-olds. They put Hills near the top of the charts at No. 16, well ahead of the Cosby Mysteries' No. 58 finish. Most advertisers still consider 18-to 49-year-olds to be the softest touches for new products.

CBS' highest-rated series among that age group, Murphy Brown, ranked only 20th. The network had only three other series in this group's top 40 — Northern Exposure, Love & War and Dave's World.

It does not look good for a repeat.

Park City Performances to present 'The Nerd'

Park City Performances will begin its 1994-95 Season of Celebration with Larry Shue's comedy The Nerd, which will run Oct. 7 through Nov. 19.

Performances will be on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at 7:30 p.m. in the Egyptian Theatre, 328 Main Street, Park City. Tickets range from $8 to $12, on Thursday nights, all tickets are $2 off. The Nerd is suitable for all ages. For reservations or more information, call 649-9371.

The nerd in this play is Rick Steadman, a guest who overstays his welcome to the point that his host, an old Army buddy, must go to outrageous lengths to try to get rid of the pest.

Playwright Larry Shue is also known for his comedy The Foreigner.

The cast of The Nerd includes Geoff Spade, Larry Webb, Melissa Timms, Steve Phillips, Marnee Sears, Antonio Palacios and Gary Anderson.
